PLATFORM OF MOHONK CONFERENCE

That Hawaii comes in for some particular consideration in mainland movements for the general national advancement is evidenced in the platform of the twenty-third Lake Mohonk conference of Friends of the Indian and other Dependent Peoples, as their title runs.

A copy of this platform has just been received in this city. The following plank is of special interest to Hawaii: "We wish also to particularly urge upon the attention of the Government the wisdom of considering the difference between the civilization of all our insular territories and that of the United States, with the resulting need of giving especial heed to the recommendations of the men there in charge, even as concerns matters as important as those of forms of government, coastwise traffic, or immigration."

Evidently those Hawaiians who had a voice in the recent Mohonk Conference left a deep impression. Says the first plank of the platform: "By the addresses, papers and discussions of this Conference we have been impressed afresh with a sense of the worth of other races than our own, and with the conviction that all those who would be of real service to the people of different races and religions with whom the events of the last decade have brought us into close political relations should study sympathetically the national life, the history, the ideals and the racial characteristics of those whom they would help."

The platform goes on: "We believe that it is the duty of the United States by legislation to see to it that adequate primary school training is provided where needed (this evidently does not apply to Hawaii where exists a school system to be proud of) for all the children of each of its territories." The Mohonk platform urges that Congress adopt the recommendation of the President toward freedom of trade between the Philippines and the United States.

GOVERNOR SECURING VARIOUS DATA FOR COMMISSION

Governor Carter was asked today what was done at the conference between him and the Washington delegates, which took place yesterday afternoon.

"There is nothing secret about it," said the Governor, "but there is really nothing to give out. It was one of those meetings where everyone made suggestions and ideas crystallized as to the course to be pursued. The members of the commission wanted data, and we are now getting such ready for them."

CHINESE ANTHEM
TO BE PLAYED
FOR COMMISSION

Preparations have been made for a fitting reception for the Chinese commissioners, who are expected to arrive from the Orient on board the Siberia, very tomorrow morning. Colonel Soper, Captain Rose and Lieutenant Cummins of the National Guard will meet the commissioners at the wharf, having been chosen to represent the Governor. Captain Berger and his band will be on hand to render appropriate selections, among which will be the only genuine Chinese national anthem, which, says Captain Berger, is a peach.

From the wharf the commissioners will go to the residence of the Chinese Consul, where a reception will be given to Chinese children, who are always anxious to see the high and mighty from the land of their fathers. Following this the commissioners will call officially on Governor Carter, on which occasion Captain Berger will again delight the visitors with the strains of the Chinese anthem. At the executive chambers the commissioners will meet prominent merchants, the presidents of the Chamber of Commerce and Merchants' Association, and representatives of the big financial institutions. After the call the commissioners will probably be driven about the city to see the sights and finally return to the Chinese Consulate.

The case of Patrick Murphy and other stowaway passengers who were left behind by the Mongolia some time ago, and are suing the Pacific Mail S. S. Co. for damages, is being heard before Judge Dole today. All the evidence is introduced in form of depositions.

A lecture will be delivered Friday evening in Assembly hall, Oahu College, by Bishop Hamilton on "Some Persons of Quality in Boston."

Ultimatum Is Sent About Kapaa By
Pratt To Spaulding

GIVEN TO FEB. 1 TO MAKE CONTRACT

A determined move was finally made by the Government today in the Kapaa land settlement case. Land Commissioner Pratt will notify Colonel Spaulding that unless the cane-grinding contract with the Molokans is closed before February 1 the negotiations are off.

The negotiations between Spaulding for the Makae Sugar Co. and J. B. Breckons at about 11 a. m. immediately after that he went over to the Capitol and was admitted to the Governor about noon. This conference took only a few minutes. Pratt was seen by a Bulletin reporter immediately after it had taken place.

"I am going to send a wireless to Col. Spaulding," said Pratt, "telling him that unless he has the contract closed by February 1, all negotiations are off. This is absolute, and it is the last limit of time, which will be given Spaulding. This matter means a great deal to me to Spaulding than it does to us. He is objecting to a couple of trifling points, I don't care what he says, they are mere trifles."

Knife Found
On Johnson

As the investigation proceeds in the Wharton murder case at Waialua the evidence gathered by the authorities seems to point strongly toward Sam Johnson, the laborer, who is under arrest as the murderer. In addition to having blood stains on his clothes he was seen to leave the Wharton home yesterday morning in company with the boy. This was the last seen of the child alive.

A large jack knife was found on Johnson's person, which shows evidence of blood stains. Sheriff Brown stated over the telephone this afternoon after an investigation that Johnson seemed to be the guilty man. The Chinaman is being held as a witness.

The motive of the crime, the sheriff believes, if Johnson is the murderer, is the fact that he had had trouble lately with Mrs. Wharton. Owing to this fact it is believed that the man induced the child to accompany him to the cane field and there with his knife butchered the boy to his death and then dismembered the body. The trunk and limbs were buried about a foot under the earth's surface.

The murderer evidently became frightened after cutting up his victim as the clothes were found a few feet away from the body, all saturated with blood and no effort had been made to conceal or bury them. It is believed that possibly the field thought he had been discovered and made a hasty retreat before completing the deed evidently planned.

There is little doubt but that the murder was committed in the morning, probably between 9 and 10 o'clock. The trunk of the body was cold when discovered.

The coroner's jury will continue the inquest tomorrow morning, starting at 10 o'clock.

Sheriff Brown and Chester Doyle have spent the day investigating the case. The sheriff will remain over night at Waialua and assist in securing additional evidence for the coroner's jury. He will return to Honolulu tomorrow, some time in the afternoon, bringing Sam Johnson, the suspected murderer, with him.

There is much excitement at Waialua over the affair.

The missing of little three-year-old Seaman Wharton of Waialua and later the finding of the fearfully mutilated body in a cane field not far from the home has stirred Waialua and the whole County to horror at the deed of some fiend, whose motive may have been the covering up of a previous unnatural crime, vengeance against the father of the child for some fancied wrong, or the gruesome work of a lunatic.

So far the only man under suspicion is one Johnson, who has for a long time enjoyed the hospitality of Henry Wharton, the father of the murdered child. He is under arrest at Waialua. (Continued on Page 5)

EXCHANGING OLD
FOR NEW WAIALUA BONDS

Holders of the existing issue of Waialua bonds, $1,000,000, have nearly all signified their intention of exchanging their holdings for an equivalent face value of the new issue, $1,500,000, on the basis of 98 for the latter. Before the new issue was authorized over three-fourths of the old bondholders agreed to exchange. Since then nearly all of the remaining fourth have indicated their intention to exchange for the new issue. Agreements have been executed to this effect in most instances, but delivery does not have to be made to the Hawaiian Trust Company until the 6th.

To Back UsNEW JURY
LAW
IS NEEDED

"We are having even more trouble in securing jurors this year than we had last year," said Judge Robinson this morning. The Judge was considerably put out at the extremely poor work done by the jury commissioners—Jas. W. Gilvin and G. J. Waller—and said so. The list of 250 talesmen selected by the commissioners contains such a number of disqualified persons that the courts are losing much time and expense in securing jurors. Out of the Grand Jury list of twenty-three only eleven were secured. Of the original trial jury venire of twenty-six issued by Judge Robinson only eleven were secured and of the special venire of fifteen issued yesterday only eight.

"The jury list contains a large number of people who are not qualified to serve for various reasons," said Judge Robinson. "Among the jurors we have drawn we have found men over (Continued on Page 5.)"
